Dzień Niepodległości Ukrainy

Tegoroczne obchody Dnia Niepodległości Ukrainy odbywają się w Centrum Integracji Cudzoziemców INTEURO w Kielcach. Tematem wiodącym spotkania jest wsparcie przedsiębiorczości cudzoziemców w Polsce. W wydarzeniu uczestniczyła Anita Koniusz, członek Zarządu Województwa oraz Aleksandra Marcinkowska, dyrektor Wojewódzkiego Urzędu Pracy w Kielcach.

- Tak blisko Polacy i Ukraińcy nie byli jeszcze nigdy. Od pierwszych dni napaści Rosji na niepodległą Ukrainę Świętokrzyskie jest z obywatelami Ukrainy. Samorząd Województwa Świętokrzyskiego od pierwszych dni po wybuchu wojny proceeding various assistance actions for Ukraine. Moving against the needs of creating appropriate conditions for this life, we successfully implement successive projects dedicated to our friends from the east. Our main idea is that people who come to Poland feel good here, have opportunities to use their potential, knowledge and experience - said a member of the Board Anita Koniusz. - On the Day of Ukrainian Independence, we wish our Ukrainian partners and friends success and the desired peace. We assure our constant solidarity and support, which we will continue to provide - added.

The topic of this year's meeting is support for entrepreneurship of foreigners in Poland. This is a response to the growing interest of foreigners (especially women from Ukraine) in opening and conducting their own business in our country and region.

The co-organizer of the event is the Provincial Office for Employment in Kielce - partner of the Association in the INTEURO project. Career advisors from WUP present an attractive offer of training and advisory services for women from Ukraine looking for work in our region.

The second part of the meeting is devoted to consultations in the area of social security and health services, as well as short-term ZUS services for foreigners, which are conducted by experts from the Kielce branch of the Social Security Fund.

Organizers: Stowarzyszenie Integracja Europa - Wschód
