Invitation to the 2017 Qingdao SME Procurement and

Investment Cooperation Meeting

In order to promote cooperation between foreign enterprises and Chinese small and medium enterprises (SMEs) in trade and investment, and boost industrial development between the two sides, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the People's Republic of China, the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) and the Qingdao Municipal People's Government will jointly organize the 2017 Qingdao SME Procurement and Investment Cooperation Meeting on 23 June 2017 in Qingdao.

As an important economic center and port city along the eastern coast of China, Qingdao is a vital international trade port and maritime transport hub along the Yellow River Basin and the western Pacific Rim. The meeting will provide a platform for cooperation in sales, procurement, technical cooperation, investment and others for enterprises engaged in the industries like equipment manufacturing, automobile manufacturing, food production, pharmaceutical manufacturing, textile, electronic equipment and etc.. At present, more than 200 Chinese companises have already registered for the meeting.

We cordially invite enterprises of different countries to participate in the meeting. We will find matched parterners for your cooperation needs, provide accommodation, catering, conference costs and transfer services during the event (up to 3 participants for each foreign enterprise), and arrange visits to the characteristic parks in Qingdao.

You may find more details of the event and the Chinese companies' information through the official website (http://www.smefw.com) of the 2017 Qingdao SME Procurement and Investment Cooperation Meeting.

Please fill in the registration form with the official seal of your company, and send it back to the local CCPIT Representative Office in your country before 9 June 2017.
